A.1 CO-CURRICULAR ORGANIZATIONS

1. LAW REVIEW

The West Virginia Law Review is a professional, student-governed legal journal that publishes articles of interest to legal scholars, students, legislators, and members of the practicing bar. Founded in 1894, the West Virginia Law Review is the fourth oldest law review in the United States and publishes three issues each year. Student members of the Law Review write, solicit, select, and edit articles and are involved in all stages of preparing issues for publication.

Membership on the Law Review is available only to second- and third-year students. To be eligible for membership, students must obtain a minimum GPA of 2.5 in first-year courses. Law Review participants who complete membership requirements receive up to four hours of credit.

Invitations for membership are based on a summer writing competition where students must write a short student article on a predetermined issue of law. After the write-on competition, there are two ways in which students are extended membership: 1) academic performance combined with writing score or 2) writing score alone. For students ranking in the top fifteen percent of their class at the end of the first year, the student article accounts for thirty-five percent of the total score, and first-year grades account for sixty-five percent of the total score. For all other students, the student article accounts for 100 percent of the total score. The number of invitations extended in this competition is dependent upon the quality of papers submitted. The maximum Law Review membership is forty-two students.

2. M.E. LUGAR TRIAL ASSOCIATION

The Lugar Trial Association is a co-curricular course designed to assist students in developing litigation skills through a mock trial program. Teams of students compete in external mock trial competitions and are coached by faculty or practicing attorneys. Course credit for Lugar is available to second- and third-year students who have completed the Trial Advocacy and Evidence courses with a grade of B or better. Students who successfully complete the requirements can receive up to three hours of pass/fail credit (one hour per competition).

3. MOOT COURT BOARD

Moot Court Board is a co-curricular organization designed to recognize and reward students for their oral and written appellate advocacy skills, as well as strengthen and further refine those skills. Board members compete in and manage the George C. Baker Cup intramural appellate moot court competition; participate in various intercollegiate, national, and international moot court competitions; and host the Energy Moot Court competition. Each member is required to compete in an "outside" interscholastic competition.

Each summer, the Moot Court Board invites rising second-year students to be members of Moot Court Board based upon their performance in a tryout competition. A maximum of eighteen members are chosen at that time. To be eligible for Moot Court credit, students must have completed Appellate Advocacy in either the summer session before the second year or the fall of their second year of law school.

The remaining second-year justices are selected through the Baker Cup Competition, which is held annually each spring semester. The Baker Cup competition is open to all second-year students who have passed Appellate Advocacy in the fall or are currently taking Appellate Advocacy in the spring. Newly selected members must participate in the competition. The Baker Cup competition ranks all competitors, uses that ranking to determine the National Moot Court Team (top six members), awards other prizes such as Best Brief and Best Oralist, and sets priorities for other outside competitions.

Moot Court Board Justices are required to maintain a 2.5 GPA and participate in at least one interscholastic appellate advocacy competition in their third year. Part-time justices must find a competition that does not require full-time status.

Students who successfully complete all the requirements for Moot Court Board membership receive up to three hours of pass/fail credit.

4. JESSUP INTERNATIONAL MOOT COURT

Jessup International Moot Court is a co-curricular class in which up to five students prepare for and compete in the Jessup International Moot Court Competition. Participation in Jessup is open to second- and third-year students. Preparing for and participating in the competition begins early in the fall semester and continues until mid-spring. Students participating in Jessup sign up for a one-credit, pass/fail class in the fall and spring semester of that year. (Members who participate in Jessup for two years thus can obtain a total of four hours credit.) Jessup students must have successfully completed or be currently enrolled in International Law.

Email: kirsha.trychta@mail.wvu.edu

The Academic Excellence Center provides academic advising for students and helps students understand degree requirements and academic policies. The Center also seeks to enhance the academic performance of all law students. Because law students must rapidly adjust to the heightened expectations of a professional school, the Academic Excellence Center provides an array of services designed to empower students to quickly integrate "how to learn" with "what to learn." The Center's ultimate goal is to help students thrive in their first year of law school, not merely survive. To this end, the Center provides (1) workshops on critical skills such as notetaking, outlining, time management, and test taking; (2) helpful handouts with tips for success and other important information about resources available to law students; and (3) individual counseling to address the needs of students who could benefit from personalized assistance.

C.2 WRITING CENTER

Director of the Writing Center

Melanie Jordan

Phone: 304-293-2008

The Writing Center helps students become better writers and offers an encouraging environment to discuss, develop, and experiment with writing techniques. The Writing Center is staffed by a full-time director as well as upper-level students who serve as Peer Writing Consultants. Individual writing consultations and group workshops are available to assist students in developing stronger writing skills or to improve a specific piece of writing. Students can seek assistance at any point in the writing process on all legal writing assignments and projects, unless an instructor explicitly prohibits it. Writing Center staff members are also available to help students with other kinds of professional writing, such as scholarship and job application materials.

The Meredith Center for Career Services and Professional Development ("Career Services") is open year round.

Students must register with the Career Services to use its services and participate in on-campus interviews. As part of the registration process, students must provide Career Services with current contact information and give permission to release resume and other employment information to prospective employers.

Students should schedule an appointment with the staff member of their choice using Career Service's scheduling software, Calendly. Staff works individually with each student to assist with career development, to write or revise a resume or cover letter, to discuss interviewing skills, or to implement job search strategies.

1. Career Center Workshops. There are a series of workshops held for students each semester. Frequently offered topics include:

- Resume writing and cover letter writing
- Interview preparation and interview skills workshops; mock interview program
- Job search strategies beyond on-campus interviews
- Using Web-based resources in the job search
- Working in public interest law (with the Center for Law and Public Service)
- Alternative careers for lawyers
- Working as a judicial clerk (With the College of Law's Clerkships Committee)

- How to have a successful summer work experience
- Career exploration presentations

Many of these workshops are co-sponsored and given by the hiring partners of local law firms, public interest organizations, and corporations.

A mandatory "Orientation to Career Services" workshop is held in mid-October, and all first-year students are required to attend. The Director for Career Services and the Assistant Director conduct this workshop each year.

2. On-Campus Interviewing. Career Services Center invites law firms, public interest organizations, government agencies, businesses, and corporations to interview WVU law students for summer and permanent positions. On-campus interview season occurs at the beginning of the Fall semester for second- and third-year students, and generally begins in mid-August. The Spring on-campus interview season is for all students and begins in late January - early February. Many employers come to campus to interview students; others ask to review student credentials through a resume collection service.

A master schedule of interviews is posted on the WVU Career Services Symplicity website (<https://law-wvu-csm.symplicity.com/students/>). The schedule is updated frequently each semester. Students should register for the Symplicity site and check it often.

Students should participate in on-campus interviewing but should also consider alternative methods of finding a job. Between 30-40% of students find their permanent jobs through on-campus interviewing each year; most students find work through a self-directed job search. Career Services is here to help with either.

Additionally, dozens of jobs are posted on Symplicity, and students are encouraged to apply directly with these employers.

3. Job Research. Career Services and the Law Library have many Web-based and print resources for student use. Handouts and books are available for students both in career services and the library. Students may use Martindale Hubbell, the National Association for Law Placement Directory of Employers, and many other job-related texts and websites to find a job. See Career Services for updated passwords.

C.5 FINANCIAL AID AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Financial Aid Contacts

Elissa Momen

Phone: 304-293-0456

Email: elissa.momen@mail.wvu.edu (elissa.momen@mail.wvu.edu)

To be eligible for all types of financial aid, a student must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This form can be completed online (<https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa/>) each year. Because West Virginia University is a direct lending institution, no loan applications will be accepted from lenders or banks. After all necessary forms have been completed by the student, the Financial Aid Office will determine a student's eligibility for student loans. Financial aid awards are to be viewed, accepted, declined, or reduced online through the WVU STAR System. Each student will receive a letter or email when his or her financial aid award has been processed. First-time loan borrowers are required to complete a master promissory note and entrance counseling. Both are to be completed online at <https://studentloans.gov/>.

Deadlines for financial aid are as follows:

Student Loans: Priority deadline: March 1, Firm deadline: None

The necessary documentation must be completed in a timely manner in order for the funds to be available for disbursement in August and January. WVU must receive your FAFSA results by June 1 to ensure timely processing. Information regarding additional loans, such as private loans, is available on the Financial Aid website at <http://financialaid.wvu.edu/loans/private>. Graduating students must complete Loan Exit Counseling if they borrowed from the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan program.

Financial Aid Processing is a detail-oriented process. Please keep the following seven steps in mind when applying for and receiving financial aid:

1. Make sure all applications are complete, correct, and submitted on time.
2. Read completely and respond quickly to all financial aid requests.
3. The following steps must be taken to have financial aid completely processed:
 - a. Submit all required documents so that your file is complete, which consists of a current FAFSA. If you are selected by the Department of Education for verification, you also must submit the WVU Verification Form and a signed copy of your most recent Federal Income Tax Return. The WVU financial aid office will post a verification form in STAR if you are selected.
 - b. View, accept, decline, or reduce your financial aid award online through the WVU STAR system. There is a separate application for the GraduatePlus Loan, which is completed online (<https://studentloans.gov>).
 - c. If you are a first-time borrower, you must sign your master promissory note and complete entrance counseling prior to disbursement of funds. Both can be done online at <https://studentloans.gov>.
4. The Financial Aid Office may be contacted by calling 304-293-1988 or by submitting an online assistance request.
5. Be sure to notify the Registrar's Office of all address changes. Students can make address changes through their MIX account and the WVU Star System. Refund checks are sent to the local address on file with the Registrar's Office. Make sure the office has the correct address so your check will get to you in a timely manner. You can sign up for direct deposit using Tuition Management Systems (TMS) at <https://studentaccounts.wvu.edu/refunds> (<https://studentaccounts.wvu.edu/refunds/>). Call 888-425-1138 with questions.
6. Keep records of your loans. You are responsible for knowing how much you borrowed, and you will need that information if you decide to consolidate your loans once you have graduated. This information is available at the National Student Loan Data System (<https://nsldsfa.ed.gov>).
7. Notify the financial aid office if you are awarded a late scholarship, tuition waiver, or some other benefit, such as VA benefits. This could affect your financial aid package, and you may have to repay some of the money you received.

Scholarship information offered at the College of Law is available here (<https://admissions.law.wvu.edu/tuition-and-aid/scholarship/>).
